1.1 - Curricular Planning and Implementation

1.1.1 - The Institution ensures effective curriculum delivery through a well planned and documented process

After receiving academic calendar from the affiliating University the IQAC of institute with all full time faculty prepared the academic calendar for the year 2022-23 keeping in view college activities and giving utmost importance to the teaching learning and internal evaluation, then to the college co-curricular activities.

So as to make students learn beyond books this year the college organised online / offline guest lectures, BAR & BENCH Discourse, workshop, interactive session and training programme focusing on IPR, Research Method, Human Rights and Women's Rights. Utmost care is taken to complete the syllabus. Academic enrichment of faculty as well as students is taken care of by the institution. Student's feedback is gathered through formal and informal ways. This year the visits were organized at DLSA Office, Mediation Centre, Family Court & CEPT plant, Police Stations, Sakar Orphan Age etc. As per the academic schedule planned by the institution, internal exams are conducted. Being an affiliated institute, college on its own can't develop or change the syllabus. The new era subjects in law were introduced by the college as add on courses such as Psychology and Law. This year we introduced value added courses to enhance students soft skills such as personality development and effective communication skills

2.2 - Catering to Student Diversity

2.2.1 - The institution assesses the learning levels of the students and organizes special Programmes for advanced learners and slow learners

The college assesses the students' needs in terms of knowledge and skills at the beginning of the courses. The college admission committee during the admission process, and with informal discussions with the students, tried to understand the students' learning levels. The abilities of the students are assessed formally and informally during the introductory lectures, class test and internal test. With the help of various teaching methods such as group discussion, seminars, tutorials, quiz and tests these categories of students are found by teachers.

Since there are large number of students belonging to economically lower strata and rural background, majority of them find English as a challenge for them. During the academic year 2022-23 mentoring cell was formally established for providing counselling as well as support. The college had undertaken activities to help these slow learners & to bridge the knowledge gap. Add on courses in spoken English and soft skills. Conduct of the Remedial Coaching Classes, extra lectures for the slow learners. All Faculty members were available to help students in the case of any query or need during the whole academic year. Extra books are provided as a Book Bank Facility. Steps taken for advanced learners to motivate their further progress which include motivating them for various activities, competitions and class presentations.

IQAC of the college had taken the initiative to organize special workshop for the students for providing them platform to update their knowledge about the recent changes in law.

2.3 - Teaching- Learning Process

2.3.1 - Student centric methods, such as experiential learning, participative learning and problem solving methodologies are used for enhancing learning experiences

The capacity of students is assessed by the faculty and accordingly teaching methods are adopted. The informal discussion and dialogue with the students is promoted and their academic as well as personal problems are discussed by the faculty if the student is willing. Assistance is provided by the faculty and institution, if needed. So as to reduce stress on the mind of students, special lectures on stress management. Classes of yoga and sports activities are promoted to keep them physically fit. Special training programmes on moot court, research and trial advocacy, client counselling, capacity building in IPR and research are conducted.

The participatory learning is promoted among the students through interactive lecture methods group discussions, presentations on contemporary issues motivating them to participate in intra college moot court and PPT competitions. Self-learning abilities are channelized through the activities such as IQAC initiated workshop wherein students are motivated to learn the new laws and judgements, selected through screening round for final presentations. Small projects, case studies were assigned to the students groups in the subject research methodology through which they learned by experience. In the subject Moot Court Training students prepared their pleadings and presented their case. Various visits were arranged for ADRS and other subjects during the year. Further case studies are given to them. Other competitions such as elocution and debate Seminar presentations, PPT competitions further enabled students to enhance capacity and skills of experiential learning, analytical and creative thinking.

2.5 - Evaluation Process and Reforms

2.5.1 - Mechanism of internal assessment is transparent and robust in terms of frequency and mode. Write description within 200 words.

The college has well developed policy for the internal examination and the same has been uploaded on the college website at <http://mpla>

w.org/Download/Policy%20of%20College%20for%20Internal%20Examination.pdf . Each faculty takes care of abiding to the college policy. As the CBCS pattern curriculum which is applicable to LL.B, BALLB and LL.M courses of Law internal exams and assignments are conducted with regular intervals.

The seminar presentations and project presentations were conducted in the offline class of the respective course. Assignments were submitted on the email of the concerned teacher. MCQ examinations were conducted on SOCRATIVE and GOOGLE forms. For the Internal MCQs teachers preferred auto generated marks system for the students whereby immediately after the test they could see their score and the correct answer. As the seminars and presentations were conducted in the class all the students could witness the performance of other students. Thus the mechanism for the internal assessment during the year 2022-'23 was transparent and robust in terms of frequency and mode.

2.6.2 - Attainment of Programme outcomes and course outcomes are evaluated by the institution.

The college gives utmost importance to the effective teaching, learning process. So as to maintain the regularity of the students and all classes attendance is recorded class wise and subject wise each day. Every teacher maintains the teaching diary and the record is also available with the college in the beginning of the course and at the initiation of each unit the expected outcome of learning is communicated to the class by the teacher. After each unit internal tests / assignments are conducted through which the attainment of learning outcome becomes clear. After the year 2022-23 as usual Practice College formally and informally looked into programme out comes after the results were declared. Course outcomes are expected to be evaluated by the teachers. The results were placed before the management of the college. Looking at the results it is found that the programme outcomes are achieved and further wherever the scope for improvement was found it was communicated to the faculty respectively.

3.4 - Extension Activities

3.4.1 - Extension activities are carried out in the neighborhood community, sensitizing students to social issues, for their holistic development, and impact thereof during the year

As the institution has set the mission to make legal education socially relevant. to provide legal aid to the poor and needy people, to move from theoretical education to clinical legal education our institute is working towards awareness amongst masses and creating sensitivity in the neighbourhood and towards development of holistic approach amongst students since long with commitment. This extension work is carried out through NSS units of our college with 300 students and Legal Aid Centre. Students of this college had completed internship in the DLSA office through which the students were sensitized about the problems and they could work towards neighbourhood community Special NSS Camp was organized at Khamgaon (Goraksha) Taluka Phulambri, Dist. Aurangabad wherein the students along with the NSS Programme Officers worked towards facilitating villagers with the required amenities. They helped village people understand the problems of lack of toilet usage, drinking water, roads, drainage, cleanliness environment and helped them understand the solutions These activities and students involvement created deep impact on the mind of students sensitizing them towards social issues. During the year 2022'23 and very recently in the year 23'24 blood donation camps were organised by the NSS unit of the college as an extension activity for which there was good response .

4.1.2 - The Institution has adequate facilities for cultural activities, sports, games (indoor, outdoor), gymnasium, yoga centre etc.

M. L. & G. E. Society's Tapdiya Auditorium and other two halls are available and were used for the Annual Social Gathering and youth festival practice and performances. As per the requirement of BCI, facility is available for outdoor and indoor games including open ground & separate sports hall. College infrastructure consists of following sports facilities. 1.Badminton 2.Table tennis 3.Chess 4.Yoga 5.Basket Ball 6.Volleyball facilities for the table tennis are made available in both the hostels. As this college is situated in the heart of the city it is plus point of the college that it is easily accessible to all. However the same time we have less scope for expanding our sports infrastructure, in order to overcome this difficulty we have entered into memorandum of association for sharing infrastructure of other nearby colleges and Dept. of Physical education and Sports, Dr. BAMU. This helps us to maintain healthy relationship and spirit of cooperation with other colleges. The sport Hall is available for the practice during whole day except college lecture hours. The user rate of the facilities available in the college and with MOUs is high and worth appreciation with which the students of the institution have achieved State as well as national awards in sports.

GOVERNANCE, LEADERSHIP AND MANAGEMENT

6.1 - Institutional Vision and Leadership

6.1.1 - The governance of the institution is reflective of and in tune with the vision and mission of the institution

Nature of governance the top management, the Principal, IQAC Cell and faculty members of the college play important role in the design, framing and implementation of quality policy and plans. The stake holders especially management, principal and faculty are keen towards fulfilment of the mission. Various educational co-curricular and curricular activities are conducted so as to legally empowered younger generation, legal aid activities are carryout. Field visits were organized as a part of clinical legal education. The strength of female students and their participation in various activities and women specific training programme is reflective of steps towards women's educational empowerment the activities such as N.S.S. and Legal Aid are set in tune with mission of the institute to make legal education socially relevant and to help poor and needy people and the mission was carried out successfully during the year 2022-23 and till today. With reference to mission 4 as stated above field visits, research projects and trainings are organized and it is further pertinent to note that the activities such as IQAC initiatives of workshop enabling students to understand contemporary changes in law have helped the institution to carryout mission of quality legal education in addition to regular teaching, learning process in the college.

6.1.2 - The effective leadership is visible in various institutional practices such as decentralization and participative management.

Institution has adopted decentralized governance system. Independence is provided in academic and other activities. The Institution provides autonomy to the various committees in performing their task which is necessary for better quality legal education. There are 29 committees constituted in the institution for decentralized and effective governance of various activities carried out in the institution. All these committees are consisting of faculty members, nonteaching staff and sometimes the students. Outcome of such decentralized work is that the teachers get trained in leadership qualities and participative management. Besides this, Internal Quality Assurance Cell is working in the institution with the objective of enhancing the quality of legal education being imparted in the institution. It prepares Action plan for every academic year and Faculty members play a significant role in the planning and implementation of the same. Every activity of the institution is monitored and managed through IQAC. CDC consisting of teaching and nonteaching representatives and management is the best example of participative management.

Other committees viz. Purchase Committee, Building Construction Committee in which Office Superintendent is a member and thus participative mechanism is adopted. Admission Committee, Internal Complaints Committee, Anti-Ragging Cell and Grievance Redressal are also working in the institution with the objective of decentralized governance wherein all activities are performed by collective efforts of all faculty members.
