

Avishkar Research club activity report 2018'19

During this academic year special lectures training programmes, National level research article writing competition and human right day event was organised by the research club of the college. Three students participated in Avishkar competition and two namely Anagha Pedgaonkar and Lokesh Kansal were selected for the state level avishkar competition. Anagha pedgaonkar represented Dr. BAMU in the zonal level Anveshan Competition.

Report of Celebration of Human Rights Day

On the eve of International Human Rights Day Special lecture of Prof. (Dr.) Kondaiah Jonnalagadda, Professor of Law, Maharashtra National Law University, Aurangabad was organized on the theme 'Human Rights in Contemporary World.' The event began with recitation of Preamble of Indian Constitution. Ms. Tejaswini Mone from B.A. LL.B I year introduced the Guest Faculty. Dr. Kondaiah was felicitated by Prof. Dr. S. N. Morey, Associate Professor. The event was introduced by Dr. A. N.

Kottapalle.

Prof. Kondaiah in his speech started with the Mythological Stories and prevalence of Human rights in religious and historical perspectives. While giving reference of Universal Declaration of Human Rights and other covenants, Sir expressed changing dimensions and expansion of scope of various provisions especially the fundamental rights provided under Indian Constitution. Touching to various issues such as manual scavenging, unorganized workers, child sexual abuse, workers in mine, elderly persons Prof. Kondaiah referred to various milestone judgment of Indian judiciary. In coming years how the Human Rights would be pursued by people by and large at International level and how the scope would become wider was well explained by him.

The presidential address was delivered by Prof. S. N. Morey. All the faculty and students were present for the special lecture. Ms. Sahiba proposed vote of thanks the event was anchored by Mr. Nikhil Soni from B.A. LL.B I year. The programme was ended with National Anthem.

Special training Programme on Research Methodology 2018-'19

Special training programme on Research Methodology was organized by Avishkar Research Club during 2nd to 4th Jan. 2019 during which Prof. K. I Vibhute, Director , Amity Law School, Mumbai guided the students. Students and faculty of M P Law college, Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar Marathwada University, Aurangabad and Maharashtra National Law University, Aurangabad participated in the training programme.

During the workshop Dr. K. I. Vibhute trained the students on various sub themes such as importance of Research in contemporary challenges, Writing of Research Article, drafting research proposal, literature review, doctrinaire and non doctrinaire methods, data analysis techniques, use of e- content, writing of research report / dissertation. All the participant students were given participation certificates.

Avishkar Research Club Activity

Report of Human Rights Sensitization Programme & National Level Research Article Writing Competition

During the academic year 2018-19 the college had organized National Level Research Article Writing Competition for students and teachers as well. The theme for the competition was 'Right to Life' total 17 Articles were submitted out of which 10 were selected for the final presentation. The assessment was made by Hon'ble Prof. Dr. Surya Prakash, Former Vice Chancellor, MNLU, Aurangabad. These presentations were organized in the special Human Rights Sensitization Programme on 5th Jan. 2019. The judge for the presentation round was Dr. Anand Deshmukh, Associate Professor, Dr. B. A. M. University, Aurangabad. Following participants were declared winners and awarded Rs. 2000/- cash prize, memento and certificate.

1. Himanshu Shah, Modern Law College, Pune - amongst students category
2. Velpula Bhavana Tejasvi, Osmania University, Hyderabad -amongst students category
3. PoosarlaBayola Kiran, National Law School, Vishkhapatnam -amongst teacher category

The Human Rights Sensitization Programme was presided over by Adv. Dr. Kalpalata Patil-Bharswadkar, Secretary, M. L. & G. E. Society, Aurangabad. Dr. Anand Deshmukh was the chief guest. The song was performed by Mr. Ganesh Khaire and Ms. JhanaviShegaonkar and team on the theme 'Human Rights'. The event was introduced by Dr. Aparna Kottapalle, Coordinator and the institute and the activities were introduced by Dr. C. M. Rao, Principal, M. P. Law College. During the programme two posters on the theme 'Right to Life' made by Research Club students of NLC III yr. was released at the hands of guests. Extempore competition for the registered participants was organized as surprise event for 15 participants in which Amrita Kaur Johar, Ranjit Jadhav and Varad were declared winners. This extempore competition was judged by Prof. S. N. Morey, Associate Professor and Prof. Abhay Jadhav, Assistant Professor of M. P. Law College, Aurangabad. Dr. Anand Deshmukh spoke on the theme ‘Various Dimensions of Human Rights’ and guided participants about the competition. The presidential address was delivered by Adv. Dr. Kalpalata Patil-Bharswadkar, Secretary, M. L. & G. E. Society, Aurangabad. Dr. Shital Barhate proposed vote of thanks and programme was ended with the National Anthem. The Programme was hosted by Mr. Mayur Subhedar and Samiksha Saude.

Dr. Aparna Kottapalle
Coordinator