From the Principal's Desk....

Each issue of our "News Letter" is a milestone that marks our growth, unfolds our imaginations, and gives life to our thoughts and aspirations. Keeping up with that tradition this Year the College introduces to you all this "News Letter" describing events organized and participated throughout the academic year 2012-13. It also highlights the achievements of the students and teachers as well and I am sure it will receive your warm admiration.

I am also glad to mention here that recently the NAAC has re-accredited our College and awarded "A Grade". We could achieve this giant success because of the support and blessings of the Managements and active participation of the Teaching and non-teaching staff, students, parents and alumni.

Hence presenting...
