Programmes for advanced learners:

Institution motivates advanced learners for their further progress in number of ways The College has stared Add on & certificate courses in Cyber Law, in foreign Language i.e. German. Outcome of the activity and course was effective & visible.

- Advanced learners are motivated to participate in intra college and inter college competitions such as the moot court competitions, research paper writing and essay writing competitions, debate, Power point Presentation and various activities conducted by the college.

They are motivated to write articles. Draft proposals for research and seminars.

- Students are motivated to complete internship at local and national levels where they get an opportunity to learn and complete various projects.

Activities/ programmes to help slow learners:

- Value added courses such as spoken English and soft skills.
- Conduct of the Remedial Coaching Classes, extra lectures for the slow learners.
- Personal assistance to slow learners by teachers in informal ways